

Adam Banks Biography

Adam arrived at Loomis Chaffee in the winter of 2021 to take over the football program after coaching at Amherst College and Georgetown University. At Amherst, Adam ascended to the role of quarterbacks and pass game and recruiting coordinator. He began his collegiate coaching career at Georgetown, his alma mater, where he coached for four years, working with defensive backs, wide receivers, and running backs. Adam was a four-year letter winner in football at Georgetown, he earned a bachelor's degree in English and Sociology. After graduation from Georgetown, Adam worked at the Potomac School in Virginia, assisting in the Athletic Department and coaching football, basketball, and track and field while earning his master's degree in education from Marymount University.

